TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Melchor, Gaspar y Baltasar son los nombres que la tradición ha dado a los tres reyes magos. Pero ¿quién dijo que eran tres? Según san Mateo (2:1-12) fueron sabios del oriente que trajeron oro, incienso y mirra a Jesús. La imaginación cristiana decidió que cada regalo requería alguien que lo regalara. Se fija así el número de sabios en tres. Por ser astrólogos del oriente, tenían que ser magos. Venían buscando al nuevo rey de Israel y fue así que se les da el papel de reyes que representaban los tres continentes conocidos en la época medieval: Asia, África y Europa. Ellos también representan tres edades humanas: juventud, madurez y vejez. Melchor (rey de la luz), fue un anciano europeo que obsequió oro al Rey Jesús; Gaspar (tesorero) fue un joven asiático que regaló incienso al Niño Dios y Baltasar (Dios proteja al rey) fue un hombre africano que donó mirra al Hijo del Hombre. Hoy día habría que incluir una niña americana y una adolescente australiana a la lista de reyes magos.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Melchior, Caspar and Balthazar are the names that tradition has given to the three wise men. But who said there were three of them? According to Matthew (2:1-12) they were wise men from the east who brought gold, incense, and myrrh to Jesus. The Christian imagination decided that each gift required someone to give it away. This sets the number of sages to three. Because they were eastern astrologers, they had to be magicians. They came looking for the new king of Israel and so they were given the role of kings representing the three continents known in medieval times: Asia, Africa and Europe. They also represent three human ages: youth, maturity and old age. Melchior (king of light) was a European elder who gave gold to King Jesus; Caspar (treasurer) was a young Asian man who gave incense to the Child God and Balthazar (God protect the king) was an African man who donated myrrh to the Son of Man. Today, an American girl and an Australian teenager should be included in the list of wise men.
