SACRAMENTAL INFORMATION

Baptism, Confirmation & Matrimony

Please request a "Sacramental Information Sheet" at the front office.

Anointing of the Sick Available to any baptized Catholic.

The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. A careful judgment about the serious nature of the illness is sufficient.

Bautismo, Confirmación y Matrimonio

Solicite una "Hoja de información sacramental" en la oficina principal.

Unción de los Enfermos Disponible para cualquier católico bautizado.

El Rito de la Unción nos dice que no hay necesidad de esperar hasta que una persona esté al borde de la muerte para recibir el Sacramento. Un juicio cuidadoso sobre la gravedad de la enfermedad es suficiente.

El anuncio que hace Jesús al iniciar su predicación en el Evangelio de hoy se recuerda el Miércoles de Ceniza al firmar con las cenizas: “Arrepentíos y creed en el evangelio”. Este es nuestro desafío para la Cuaresma; de hecho, es el desafío de toda nuestra vida. Durante la Cuaresma, estamos invitados a fortalecer y renovar las promesas que hicimos en nuestro Bautismo, a rechazar a Satanás y al pecado para vivir como hijos de Dios. A través de la gracia de Dios que recibimos en el bautismo, seguimos los impulsos del Espíritu Santo y sabemos que con la ayuda de Jesús saldremos victoriosos sobre el pecado.

Mientras se reúnen como familia, hablen sobre la importancia del bautismo. En nuestro Bautismo, nuestros pecados fueron perdonados y prometimos vivir como hijos de Dios. Como parte del Rito del Bautismo, rechazamos el pecado y a Satanás. Lea el Evangelio de hoy, Marcos 1:12-15. Durante la Cuaresma, renovamos las promesas de nuestro Bautismo, alejándonos del pecado y prometiendo seguir a Dios. Encienda una vela, tal vez una vela usada en el bautismo de uno de sus familiares, y oren juntos el Acto de Contrición.

Background Reading on the Gospel

The Gospels of Matthew and Luke explain that Jesus fasted while in the desert, that Satan presented him with three temptations, and that Jesus refused each one, quoting Scripture. Only the Gospels of Matthew and Mark report that angels ministered to Jesus at the end of his time in the desert. In each of the Synoptic Gospels, the temptation of Jesus follows his baptism by John the Baptist. In Mark's Gospel, we are told that Jesus went into the desert immediately after his baptism, led by the Spirit. Jesus' public ministry in Galilee begins after his temptation in the desert. Mark's Gospel makes a connection between the arrest of John the Baptist and the beginning of Jesus' ministry. Jesus' preaching about the Kingdom of God is in continuity with the preaching of John the Baptist, but it is also something new. As Jesus announces it, the Kingdom of God is beginning; the time of the fulfillment of God's promises is here.

The fact that Jesus spent 40 days in the desert is significant. This recalls the 40 years that the Israelites wandered in the desert after being led from slavery in Egypt. The prophet Elijah also journeyed in the desert for 40 days and nights, making his way to Horeb, the mountain of God, where he was also attended to by an angel of the Lord. Remembering the significance of these events, we also set aside 40 days for the season of Lent. In Mark's Gospel, the desert marks beginning of Jesus' battle with Satan; the ultimate test will be in Jesus' final hours on the cross. In a similar way, our Lenten observances are only a beginning, a preparation for and a reinforcement of our ongoing struggle to resist the temptations we face in our lives. During Lent, we are led by the Holy Spirit to remember the vows of Baptism in which we promised to reject sin and to follow Jesus. Just as Jesus was ministered to by the angels, God also supports us in our struggle against sin and temptation. We succeed because Jesus conquered sin once and for all in his saving death on the cross.
